World Book Day

We're not going to let Coronavirus stop us from celebrating WBD which falls on March 4th this year.

In order to mark the occasion children (at home and at school) can wear their PJ's and spend some time reading their favourite bedtime story. They can also bring a prop or a clue to a book or a character to the morning registration and ask the other children to try to guess their book/character. Later in the day there will be a book related activity and a session to listen to a story read by their teachers. Class teachers will let their classes know about the times for each event.

We hope that all of the children can join us for this event.

Home Learners

Hello!

On Monday we heard the news we've all been waiting for –that children will be returning to school on March 8th. We are currently revising our risk assessment, reviewing procedures and will shortly be in a position to send these to you. We are very much looking forward to seeing everyone's smiley faces again in person.

This week two year groups have been on their school 'trip'-year four have visited Stonehenge and Longleat Safari Park and year 3 went a little further afield, visiting Sea World! Both classes have returned safely and I'm sure they have lots of stories to tell about their adventures!

WN and years 5 and 6 are off on their trips next week which look to be very exciting indeed!

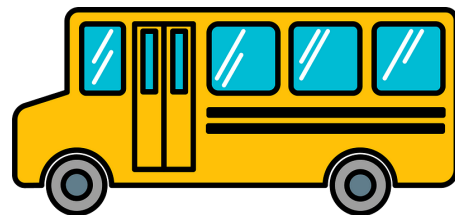

Friends of Moorlands

Thank you to all of you who are participating in the virtual balloon race, you can see how your balloon is getting on at: www.balloonrace.com/moorlands

This week we have announced our exciting plans for the school library-a renovated bus! We are currently very busy looking into how we can convert the bus into a functional library and would very much welcome any advice. Friends of Moorlands are very excited about this and are also busy thinking of different fundraising ideas to make this happen.

We will let you know the final total raised by the gin night and the half term treasure hunt as soon as we can.

The next event is the Mother's day shop, please see the Friends of Moorlands Facebook page or ParentPay for more details.
