Football

Well done to our fabulous footballers who took part in the tournament last night.

They played Worthington and held them to a draw.

Thank you to George's dad and Mrs McKenna who accompanied the children whilst our footballing experts were at Winmarleigh Hall.

Blogging

Don't forget to have a look at our blogs on the following link:

<https://moorlandsjuniorblogs.net/>

The children would love it if you could pop on and give us a like or even a comment. Take a look at some of these fantastic poems from our children!

A Painting in my Mind

I want to paint the sweet strawberry icing on a delicious, soft doughnut which just rose from the oven.

I want to paint a hazelnut, brown doughnut with chocolate oozing down the sides, making your tummy rumble as you look at it.

I want to paint a soft, scrumptious pizza laid out on a white, marble plate ready for people to eat.

I want to paint a fluffy, white puppy curling up in a leather, cosy basket, sleeping silently hour after hour.

I want to paint a baby narwhal swimming across the beautiful, turquoise ocean, its horn gleaming in the golden sun.

By Lydia (Y5)

Cats hunt for rats.

Always ready to pounce on their prey,

Treading silently to catch a grey mouse.

Missing Scooter

One of our children has lost a purple micro scooter with a rainbow sticker on the front– have you taken it home by accident? If so can you please return it to the school office. Thank you

Clubs

Unfortunately Sale Sports Club are still unable to provide a coach to run the Monday and Tuesday after school football clubs and the Friday archery club.

This is due to DBS checks taking a significant amount of time and it is very difficult to predict when their staff will have the necessary clearance.

We have managed to cover the clubs with our own staff generously volunteering their own time. However, this has sometimes meant some staff taking 2 or 3 clubs a week as well as supervising football tournaments and residential trips.

Therefore, with regret we have no alternative but to cancel the football and archery clubs until further notice.

We thank you for your understanding on this issue and

The Lonely Man

I want to paint emptiness, like a room that has been untouched for too long,

Hope; the way that a sack is half empty or half full.

I want to paint the rain silently falling on a small car parked outside my neighbours house. I could watch it all day.

A house alone in the street, with nothing but a lamppost and people to meet.

I want to paint a day where the clock stops ticking, but the day keeps on going and the stars keep shining.

A street as empty as an old motel that's had its big unwelcoming doors closed for centuries.

I want to paint an unexplored forest full of mythical creatures.

A man as lonely as his faith, but he doesn't have a worry because he just wants to paint.
